DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lee in view of Lefebvre.

In Figures 1-4, Lee discloses a pop-up dispenser (10) for dispensing sheets of aluminum foil, as described in column 1, lines 44-48. Each sheet has a lead portion and a trailing portion. The lead portion of the first sheet (30) of aluminum foil extends through a dispensing orifice (elongated opening 14) to an elevation above that of the dispensing unit (10), as shown in Figure 3. The trailing portion of the first foil (30) overlaps the lead portion of the next hair foil to be dispensed, as discussed in column 1, lines 10-19 and column 2, lines 48-51. Withdrawing the first sheet of foil (30) pulls the next sheet, as discussed in column 1, lines 19-23. The withdrawing of the first sheet of foil (30) can be achieved with one hand. The first foil sheet (30) can be applied to a person's hair immediately after being dispensed without any further preparation if the foil sheet is already the proper size for applying to hair. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the foil sheets dispensed by the dispenser of Lee the proper size for applying to hair, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the size of a component. A change in size is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose, 105 USPQ (CCPA 1955).

Lee does not disclose the application of foil to a person's hair. Lefebvre discloses the application of foil to a person's hair as prior art in column 1, lines 11-40. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply the foil of Lee to a person's hair, as taught by Lefebvre, in order to highlight only selected strands of hair.

Note: According to MPEP 2111.02, the applicant has the burden of showing that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of the applicant's invention if the applicant contends that additional steps or materials in the prior art are excluded by the recitation of "consisting essentially of."

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 28 June 2004 regarding Lee have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues in lines 18-21 of page 6 of the remarks that, "Lee requires and makes essential that elastic strings twist and untwist to assist the user in withdrawing the tissue or foil and then withdrawing a second sheet of tissue or foil." Examiner respectfully disagrees. In column 1, lines 37-41 of Lee, it states that "aluminum foil...might not be used with the opening formed by the plastic sheet because the weight of such a material cannot be supported by the pinching force created by the plastic sheet." Basically, it is possible to use aluminum foil without the help of the elastic strings, but it is preferable to have the elastic strings. The elastic strings are an improvement, not an essential element. Applicant's arguments with respect to Awaijane have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
